

BNP vice chairman Khandaker Mahbub passes away

January 1, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: BNP vice chairman and also former president of Supreme Court Bar Association Advocate Khandker Mahbbub Hossain passed away at a hospital in Dhaka on Saturday night. He was 84. Advocate Khandker Mahbbub Hossain breathed his last at about 11:00pm while undergoing treatment at Evercare Hospital, said his junior lawyer Mohammad Shishir Manir.

On Wednesday, the BNP leader was put on a ventilator at Evercare a day after being admitted there with a respiratory problem. Mahbub, former vice-president of the Bangladesh Bar Council and president of the Supreme Court Bar Association, was one of the lawyers of BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia.