

Technical glitch delays metro rail ticket sale at Agargaon station

January 2, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Technical glitch again found in ticket vending machines at Agargaon station on Monday. There are three machines at the station. Besides, three counters are also there for ticket sales. Suddenly at 8:50am, the officials faced troubles due to problems with one machine. Later, technical problems also at two others machines. Commuters failed to purchase tickets due to the problems. But the passengers' rush at the station is relatively less.
