

Man held with 93,000 Yaba pills in Ctg

January 3, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Members of the Rapid Action Battalion (RAB) have arrested a man along with 93,400 Yaba pills from Karnaphuli upazila in Chattogram district. The arrested is Abdur Rahim, 30, a resident of Bodolpura area in the upazila.

Acting on a tip-off, a team of the elite force conducted a drive at a house in Boiragi area on Monday afternoon and caught him red-handed along with 93,400 Yaba tablets, RAB-7 senior assistant director Nurul Absar said on Tuesday morning. During the initial interrogation, Rahim admitted that he had been collecting Yaba from Cox's Bazar and supplying it in different areas of the country. The arrested was handed over to the police station concerned to take legal action, the RAB official added.
