

No more scholarship in primary schools

September 7, 2023

Online Desk: Primary and Mass Education Secretary Farid Ahmed on Thursday said that scholarships will not be given in the primary schools in the traditional way. “Instead of scholarship, students will be given incentive allowance. But it has not been finalised yet in which method they will be given.”

Farid Ahmed came up with the information at a press briefing held at Primary and Mass Education Ministry.

He said, “A committee has been formed over the issue. A decision in this regard will be taken within a month after the committee submit the report.
