

Drop by ‘Phultokka’, a chill, open-for-all exhibition

October 25, 2023

Online Desk: A three-day-long photo exhibition of four promising Bangladeshi photographers will be on display at Studio Yellow Something, Niketon from October 26. These photographers are Jami, Nishat, Ummid and Saddat.

The event titled ‘Phultokka’ is hosted by filmmaker Raka Noshin Nower’s organisation, Studio Yellow Something. The event will comprise of several exciting activities such as chocolate making, storytelling exercise by zine making with photographs, a dancing and singing session, equanimity session, playing ‘phultokka’ with everyone. There will be a photo booth as well.

Raka, along with her team, took this initiative to inspire young talents, and as a growing organisation, they have also received warm reception from celebrities as well. Artistes like, FS Nayeem, Sunerah Binte Kamal, Aisha Khan and Russell Rahman also posted videos on the event, and invited people to come and experience the event.

The open-for-all event will conclude on October 28.