

Season's lowest temperature 6.9°C recorded in Tentulia

January 10, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Bone-chilling cold is disrupting day-to-day lives of people in Panchagarh's Tentulia as cold wave has sweeping here for the last two days. Today's lowest temperature of the country was recorded at 6.9°C in Tentulia at 9am, according to Bangladesh Meteorological Department (BMD). This is the seasonal lowest temperature. On Monday, the mercury dropped to 7°Celsius in Tentulia. But as the day progressed, the sun has risen which eased the poor and day-labourers.
