

Chittagong University expels 17 BCL men

January 11, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Chittagong University authorities have expelled 17 Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) men in different terms for vandalism, clashes and harassment of journalists. But on the other hand, a Chhatra Odhikar Parishad activist has been expelled for two years in another incident.

The university authorities took the decision on Monday but confirmed the matter at 12midnight through a written order. Of the 18 students, 17 are the leaders and activists of different group of BCL, said CU Proctor Rabiul Hasan Bhuiyan.
