

Hold participatory election through national dialogue: Dr Kamal

November 14, 2023

Online Desk: Ganaforum founder and president emeritus Dr Kamal Hossain has demanded participatory election through national dialogue.

“I want a participatory election through national dialogue. If it happens, we will take our decision after considering the matter,” he said while addressing a press conference on the occasion of announcement of a full-fledged central committee post Special National Council 2023 and political situation prevailing in the country at Abdus Salam Hall of National Press Club on Tuesday (November 14).

The elderly politician said, “We want to consolidate the country’s national unity and reach a consensus holding dialogue with all stakeholders. They we all should think of joining the election. We will try our best to do it.”

Mentioning that the country’s situation is “very dreadful,” he further said it is possible to save the country from this devastating situation if people get united. We always lay emphasis on unity.”

Dr Kamal also said decision ought to be taken from inside the country, instead of relying on foreign intervention.

At the press conference, a 101-member committee of Ganaforum was announced with Mafizul Islam Khan Kamal as president and Dr Nizanur Rahman as general secretary. Dr Kamal Hossain has been accommodated in the committee as emeritus president.
