

BNP's countrywide protest processions on Jan 16

January 11, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) will hold protest processions and rallies across the country on January 16. The party secretary general Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir announced the programme on Wednesday from their mass sit-in at Nayalpaltan office.

BNP will hold the programme to press home their 10-point demands and in protest against the electricity price hike. Mirza Fakhrul said, "The government should immediately resign and dissolve the parliament. Elections should be held under a non-partisan neutral government. He said that on January 16, the protest programme will be held in the districts, upazilas, metropolitans and municipalities.
