

Salman F Rahman attends ‘Global Economic Policy Forum’ in Delhi

December 8, 2023

Online Desk: Salman F Rahman, advisor to the prime minister on private industry and investment, has participated in the “Global Economic Policy Forum 2023” as a panel member of global experts.

The Indian Department of Economic Affairs and the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) jointly organised the two-day event in Delhi on December 7-8, said a press release here today.

The theme of the forum was “Strategizing global prosperity amidst a poly- crisis prevailing at present”.

The Forum was chaired by Indian Finance and Corporate Affairs Minister Nirmala Sitharaman.

Salman F Rahman addressed the forum on “Inspirations from the Growth and Development Journey of Bangladesh”.

He was invited to speak on how has Bangladesh achieved rapid economic and developmental transformation.

The Advisor also answered a number of questions from the participants.