Online Desk: Supporters of Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) are killing people and setting fires on trains, buses and trucks in the name of ‘non-cooperation’ movement, Education Minister Dr. Dipu Moni said on Friday.

“But there can be no non-cooperation without the involvement of the people,” the minister said while campaigning in Shah Mahmudpur Union (Chandpur-3 Constituency) of Chandpur Sadar Upazila on Friday afternoon.

She also said that the people are not with the BNP. With a sudden announcement on social media, four or five people ran on to the streets and vandalised whatever they could.

“Non-cooperation does not mean sabotage. Those who commit sabotage, violence, are the allies of war criminals, they do not even understand the meaning of non-cooperation,” added the AL leader.

Nazim Dewan, chairman of Chandpur Sadar Upazila and leaders and activists of District and Upazila Awami League and its allies were present at that time.
