

Massive crowds in Narayanganj rally venue as PM arrives in the city after 15 years

January 4, 2024

Online Desk: The anticipation of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's return to Narayanganj city after 15 years has created a festive atmosphere as crowds started to gather at the rally ground early today, despite the cold weather.

From 10 am this morning, Awami League leaders and activists were seen marching towards the rally venue, Shamsuzzoha Sports Complex, shouting the "Joy Bangla" slogan.

People were spotted arriving at the rally venue by motorbikes, pick-up vans, and on foot, all in anticipation of the Awami League president's campaign rally. Meanwhile, the anticipation of the upcoming national election has sparked enthusiasm among the Awami League leaders and activists, which was evident as the rally venue is already brimming with party supporters.

After the announcement of Awami League President Sheikh Hasina's arrival, local leaders and activists started preparing to welcome the prime minister after 15 years.

Processions and public gatherings were seen in several places of the city, including on Link Road, Maleh Road, College Road, Kalibazar, Hospital Road. Most of them are headed to Shamsuzzoha Sports Square.

Narayanganj's Link Road and the surrounding areas of the public rally venue have been covered with festoons, posters and banners.

Shamsuzzoha Sports Complex has been decorated on the occasion of the prime minister's public rally. Separate areas for men and women have been arranged for the rally. Loudspeakers have been installed on various electric poles in the city outside the public rally ground. The streets have been cleaned, and the whole city has been decorated with posters.
