

Dhanmondi 32: DCAB pays tribute to Bangabandhu

January 5, 2024

Online Desk: Newly elected executive committee of the Diplomatic Correspondents Association, Bangladesh (DCAB) paid respect to Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman at Dhanmondi 32 in Dhaka on Friday morning.

Newly elected President Nurul Islam Hasib and General Secretary Ashiqur Rahman Apu together with the DCAB members placed wreath at Bangabandhu's portrait in front of Bangabandhu Memorial Museum.

DCAB Vice President (elect) Md. Tanzim Anwar and Vice President Rabiul Haque, joint secretary Md Arifuzzaman, treasurer Atiqur Rahman, and executive members Pantho Rahaman, Israt Jahan Urmi, Mir Mostafizur Rahman, Porimol Palma and Masum Billah were present, among others.

Former DCAB President Angur Nahar Monty, former Vice President and General Secretary AKM Moinuddin; former GS Touhidur Rahman and members Sheikh Shahriar Zaman, Rubaet Hassan and Nazrul Islam were also present.

The new committee took charge on Thursday for a year after the elections on December 31.