

Four cases filed over BNP-police clash in Ctg

January 17, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Four cases have been filed over the clash between police and activists of BNP in Kazir Dewri area of Chattogram city. The cases were filed early Tuesday against Chattogram city BNP convenor Shahadat Hossain, member secretary Abul Hashem, 90 others named and 500 unidentified people with Kotwali Police Station. “After detaining 20 people during the clash, 16 people were shown arrested. Although drives were conducted at various places last night, no one was arrested,” said the police station OC Zahidul Kabir.

These cases were filed under the Anti-Terrorism Act on charges of using explosives, attacking police and torching a motorcycle. On Monday, supporters of Chattogram BNP unit locked into clash with police in front of the party office at Nasiman Bhaba, leaving at least 50 people injured.
