

4 houses, 1 shop gutted in Kurigram fire

January 21, 2024

Online Desk: Four houses and a shop were gutted in a fire at Nayarhat Ververi area in Sadar upazila of Kurigram on Sunday morning.

A van with 5 maunds of cotton was burnt to ashes in the fire that broke at the house of Khairul Islam of Nayarhat area at 4am.

Locals said the fire spread to some neighboring houses immediately.

The cause of the fire is yet to be ascertained.

Later, locals entered a house and rescued eight sheep from the house. But the van, 5 maunds of cotton and some clothes in the shops were burnt to ashes.

Fire service personnel from Kurigram Sadar arrived and brought the fire under control.

Holokhana UP Chairman Rezaul Karim he sought help from the Deputy Commissioner in this regard.