

Indonesia wants to import irregular exportable products from Bangladesh

February 6, 2024

Online Desk: Indonesia has expressed its keenness to import high quality irregular exportable products from Bangladesh.

Indonesian ambassador to Bangladesh Heru H Subolo conveyed the interest of his country when he paid a courtesy call on State Minister for Commerce Ahsanul Islam Titu at latter's office in Dhaka on Monday, reports BSS citing a press release.

Titu said the government has established economic zones for investment.

“In import and export, we are moving towards direct exchange system with several countries. New and improved products will be added in future to diversify the list of exportable products,” he added.
