December 17, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Ziaul Haque Polash became a household name after his appearance in Kajal Arefin Ome’s popular fiction “Bachelor Point”. The actor has also taken on the director’s cap, having directed several fictions in his career—starting off by working as an assistant director under Ome.

Today, the actor and director began a new chapter of his life. Earlier in the day, Ome confirmed the news of Polash tying the knot with Nafisa, through social media. The director posted a few pictures of the marriage ceremony—which took place in a homely setting—along with a heartfelt message.

Ome's post read, "Our beloved Ziaul Haque Polash began assisting me from March 2016. He is extremely hardworking and dedicated. Even though he didn't want to act on the screen, I have always pushed him to do some sequences on my projects. He would always say that he wants to keep his focus on directing only. However, I have always seen some x-factor in him as an actor, and that is how audiences got their favourite Kabila."

The director also added to his post that both the bride and groom's family, along with the "Bachelor Point" family, are extremely happy for the newlyweds. Ome concluded his post by requesting everyone to pray for the new couple on their journey.
