

Secondary school admission from tomorrow

December 17, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Admission from class I to IX at the secondary level of government and non-government schools for the academic session of 2023 will begin from tomorrow, Sunday and will continue till 21 December. This has been disclosed in a circular signed by director general of directorate of secondary and higher education, professor Nehal Ahmed.

According to the circular, the selection for admission against the vacant seats from class I to class IX through the digital lottery in the academic session of 2023 for government (all) and non-government (city and upazila headquarters) was held on 12 and 13 December. The results of the digital lottery for admission from class I to class IX in the 2023 academic session at the country's government high schools has been published.

Results of selected candidates including waiting ones have been sent to the respective institutions. As per serial of the result sheet, the admission will begin from Sunday and will continue till 21 December. Admission from the waiting list will go on between 22 and 27 December.