

BNP's march 'to restore democracy' starts

January 28, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) started its march in Dhaka on Saturday afternoon to restore "democracy in the country." The march began from Suvastu Tower in Badda around 2:30pm where thousands of BNP men joined. It will end in front of Abul Hotel in Malibagh.

The party's Secretary General Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir led the march. The four-day march will end on February 1. Dhaka South City BNP will march from Jatrabari to Shyampur on January 30 and from Mugda to Malibagh on February 1.