

US official's Bangladesh visit called off

February 6, 2023

Online Desk: US Deputy Assistant Secretary for the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor Kara C. McDonald has shelved her planned visit to Bangladesh. She was scheduled to arrive for a three-day visit from February 7 to discuss labour rights issues. A senior official at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs told UNB that the visit has been called off.

However, there has been no official announcement regarding the visit – neither from the US side, nor from the Bangladesh side. McDonald oversees the Bureau's work on Europe, South and Central Asia, and the Multilateral and Global Affairs teams.
