February 7, 2023

Online Desk: Fahim Tajwar Joy, a prominent activist of Bangladesh Chhatra League and a student of Dhaka University has been accused of molesting a couple and looting money from them in front of central Shahid Minar. He is a student of department of History of 2021-22 session. A case in this regard has been filed accusing Fahim and 10-12 unnamed people who participated in the looting. Principal administrative Officer, Md. Abdul Motaleb, of Masterda Surja Sen Hall lodged the case against Fahim at the Shahbagh police station as his niece and her husband were the victims.

According to the complaint letter, “Riya and her husband Rasel were on the way to visit Abdul Motaleb’s house from nearby Chawkbazar at 11 pm of February 4. When they were crossing throughout the frontier road of Shahid Minar, Fahim and his friends blocked their way, abused them verbally and beat them with sticks. At one point they took Rasel at the backside of Shahid Minar and snatched all money from him which counts TK 22000 and then they snatched ATM cards from him.” “They also molested my niece,” the complaint said.

“Being informed, when my son Mehrab went to rescue them, Fahim and his friends beat me badly. Later, surrounding people came and saved us from them.” Contacted, OC of Shahbagh police station, Noor said, “We have received the case and we will investigate the matter.” Mentioned, Fahim is a posted member of Masterda Surja Sen Hall Chhatra League and follower of Abdulla Khan Shoisob who is a follower of Dhaka University Chhatra League General secretary Tanbir Hasan Saikat.
