

Young entrepreneurs to be driving force of economy: FBCCI

July 1, 2024

Special Correspondent

Federation of Bangladesh Chambers of Commerce and Industries (FBCCI) President Mahbubul Alam said young entrepreneurs will be the life force of the economy of Bangladesh.

He called upon the young entrepreneurs to work with honesty and dedication.

The FBCCI president made the urge while speaking as a chief guest at a meeting of the Standing Committee on Young Entrepreneurs held at the FBCCI office in the capital on Sunday.

He participated in the meeting virtually. The meeting was presided over by the chairman of the committee and Dhaka Resort Limited managing director Mohammad Sajibul Al-Rajib.

Standing committee director in-charge Kawsar Ahmed was present at the time.

FBCCI President Mahbubul Alam said becoming an entrepreneur is not an easy thing. As a young entrepreneur has to go through many ups and downs, he has to constantly face new challenges. That's why young entrepreneurs should keep a strong vision and work with integrity, only then will the desired success be achieved.

Mahbubul Alam also said that the youth of the country will be the artisans of building a smart Bangladesh in 2041. In this era of artificial intelligence where manual work will decrease day by day, where young entrepreneurs have to be creative and flexible in business thinking. He also commented that the young entrepreneurs of the country will be successful if they can work with honesty and sincerity with big dreams.

Senior Vice President of FBCCI Amin Helali said, the country has a large number of young manpower. This is the great strength of this country. Global business is constantly changing. The young generation of the country should contribute in this regard.

Standing committee director in-charge Kawsar Ahmed said the young generation wants to be established by working with their own plans.

Director of FBCCI Hafez Haji Harun-Or-Rashid, Ishaqul Islam Sweet, Syed Md also spoke at the meeting.