

BCL, anti-quota protesters clash at DU, 30 injured

July 15, 2024

Online Desk : Thirty students were injured in a clash between the leaders and activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and anti-quota protesters at Bijoy Ekattor Hall in Dhaka University at 3pm on Monday. Witnesses said, the anti-quota protesters went to the hall to bring the students. At that time, the leaders and activists of the BCL obstructed them from entering the hall. They locked in an altercation and then attacked each other. They chased each other and hurled brick bats.

However, BCL announced to organize a rally at Raju Memorial Sculpture at 3pm protesting the derogatory remarks against the Independence. The anti-quota protesters gathered there at 2:30pm and were observing demonstrations against Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's remarks about their movement demanding quota reform.
