

Nationwide mass procession Friday against mass killings, wholesale arrest

August 1, 2024

Online Desk : Anti-Discrimination Students Movement has announced a nationwide mass procession of students and people after Jumma prayer on Friday (August 2) protesting mass killings and wholesale arrest.

Earlier, prayers will be offered at mosques after Jumma prayers, fateha will be offered at the martyred graves, prayers will be arranged at all worship places including temples, churches and pagodas. The Anti-Discrimination Students Movement announced the “Prayer and Students-People’s Mass Procession” programme for Friday protesting the mass killings, wholesale arrest, and realising nine-point demands of the students.

More to follow.....