

Interim govt to be formed : Army chief

August 5, 2024

Online Desk : Chief of Army Staff General Waker-Uz-Zaman on Monday said the country will now be government by an interim government and it will be formed soon. The army chief made the remark in his address to the nation on Monday afternoon after Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina stepped down and left the country in the face of nationwide widespread student agitation.

Saying that the country was passing through a crucial juncture, the army chief said, “An interim government will be formed.”

“ I promise you ensuring justice for all killings and injustice. Keep your trust in the army and armed forces. I am taking all the responsibilities. We will bring back the order in the country,” he said.
