

South Korea looks forward to working with the interim government

August 17, 2024

Online Desk : The South Korean government hopes that the inauguration of Bangladesh's interim government will lead to the swift restoration of peace and order in Bangladesh.

South Korea looks forward to working with the interim government to move Korea-Bangladesh relations forward, said the Spokesperson at the South Korean Foreign Ministry.