

CA Prof Yunus leaves Dhaka for New York

September 23, 2024

Online Desk : Chief Adviser of interim government Prof Muhammad Yunus departed for New York on Monday (September 23) morning to attend the 79th United Nations General Assembly (UNGA). A Qatar Airways QR-643 flight, carrying Prof Yunus, left the Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport in the capital at about 5:05AM.

He will stay in New York for three days and depart for Bangladesh on September 27 after delivering his speech. The chief adviser will lead a 57-member delegation at the general assembly. This year's UNGA is particularly significant for Bangladesh, as it marks the 50th anniversary of Bangladesh's membership in the United Nations.
