October 5, 2024

Online Desk : The Bangladesh Jamaat-e-Islami will hold a press conference on 9 October to highlight the issues that require reforms before the national election. “We will present our thoughts on what reforms are needed at this moment and what reforms we need later on,” Jamaat Ameer Shafiqur Rahman told reporters after the party held a dialogue with Chief Adviser Prof Muhammad Yunus at the state guesthouse Jamuna on Saturday.

He said the interim government has not come to rule the country rather they have come to build a fair way to govern the nation. “Their [interim government] task is to pave the way to ensure a fair, acceptable, and peaceful election environment since the nation was deprived of those in three consecutive elections. For this purpose, they must reform some fundamental issues we discussed with the chief adviser.”

Shafiqur said, “Earlier, we asked for two roadmaps for reforms and election. If reforms are successful, the election will be successful. That is why we have given importance to both.”
