

‘Everything is Allah’s will’: Md Shahabuddin, set to become next President of Bangladesh

February 12, 2023

Online Desk: “Everything is Allah’s will,” Md Shahabuddin Choppu, who is set to be the next President of Bangladesh, said today. “There is no reaction now. This is Almighty Allah’s will,” Md Shahabuddin told reporters after submitting his nomination paper at the Election Commission, reports UNB. Md Shahabuddin, a retired district and session judge, had served as a commissioner at the Anti-Corruption Commission.

An Awami League team, led by the party’s general secretary Obaidul Quader, went to the Election Commission to submit the nomination paper of its presidential candidate. The delegation members included AL Presidium members Mohammad Faruk Khan, Jahangir Kabir, and Abdur Rahman, AL Joint General Secretary Dr Hasan Mahmud.
