

Four ex-ministers among 8 remanded in different cases

October 30, 2024

Online Desk : Eight people, including four former ministers, have been placed on different terms of remand in various cases filed with different police stations in the capital. Two separate courts in Dhaka have placed them on remand in various cases filed with different police stations in the capital. Former law minister Anisul Huq was placed on five -day remand in a case filed with Shahbagh Police Station case and another three-day remand in a murder case filed with the Badda Police Station. Former food minister Sadhan Chandra Majumder was placed on a three-day remand in a murder case filed with Mohammadpur Police Station.

Besides, former shipping minister Shahjahan Khan was placed on a three-day remand in a murder case filed with Jatrabari Police Station while former information minister Hasanul Huq Inu was placed on a five-day remand in a murder case filed with the Dhanmandi Police Station. A Dhaka metropolitan magistrate court placed former lawmaker Haji Mohammad Salim on a five-day remand in a murder case filed with Chawkbazar Police Station.

Former inspector general of police (IGP) Chowdhury Abdullah Al Mamun was placed on a three-day remand in a murder case filed with the Dhanmandi Police Station and another four-day remand filed with Bongshal Police Station.

Sacked Maj Gen Ziaul Ahsan was placed on a five-day remand in a murder case filed with the New Market Police Station, while the general secretary of banned Bangladesh Chhatra League Dhaka University unit Tanvir Hasan Soikat was placed on a five-day remand in a murder case filed with Chawkbazar Police Station.