

Prof Yunus greets Trump on historic win in US polls

November 6, 2024

Online Desk : Chief Adviser Professor Muhammad Yunus today congratulated Donald Trump for his historic win in the US presidential election. “I am delighted to convey, on behalf of the government and the people of Bangladesh, my heartfelt felicitations to you on your victory in the US Presidential Election 2024,” he said in a congratulatory message. “Electing you as the US President for a second term reflects that your leadership and vision have resonated with the people of the United States of America. I am confident that under your stewardship, the United States will thrive and continue to inspire others around the world,” the message read.

Recalling the existing excellent relations between Bangladesh and the US, Prof Yunus said Bangladesh and the United States share a long history of friendship and collaboration across numerous areas of mutual interest. The relationship continued to grow in depth and breadth during Trump’s previous term in the office, he said. Looking forward to working together to further strengthen their partnership and foster sustainable development, the Chief Adviser said he firmly believes that the possibilities are endless as the two friendly nations work towards exploring newer avenues of partnership.

“Excellency, aligning with our commitment to a peaceful and inclusive society, the government and the peace-loving people of Bangladesh look forward to partner and collaborate in your efforts in addressing the global challenges in the pursuit of peace, harmony, stability, and prosperity for all,” Prof Yunus said.
