Online Desk: The condition of Nibir Kumar Dey, son of singer Kumar Bishwajit Dey, has slightly improved. But he is not out of danger, said family members quoting doctors. Nibir was injured critically in a tragic road accident at Toronto in Canada and is currently undergoing treatment at St. Michael's Hospital. He has been kept at intensive care unit (ICU). He underwent surgery. He may need more surgery, the physicians of the hospital informed this to family.

His parents—Kumar Bishwajit and Naima Sultana—are currently in Canada. According to the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP), a vehicle was involved in an accident on Highway 427 at West Dundas Street in Toronto.

According to the Bangladesh expatriates in Canada, Nibir was driving a car which was very speedy. He lost the control while getting from one highway to another highway. It was slightly curved there. The speeding car rammed the highway railing and then turned turtle thrice. Instantly, fire broke out inside the car.

There were four passengers in the car at the time of the accident. They are all Bangladeshis. Three of them were killed on the spot. The remaining one was Nibir who sustained major injuries. The three deceased were Shahriar Khan, Angela Shreya Baroi and Aryan Alom Dipto.
