

Keep female students' faces uncovered: Writ challenges legality of DU notice

February 19, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk : A writ has been filed with the High Court challenging the legality of the notice of Dhaka University's Bangla department asking its students to keep their faces uncovered during examinations and presentations. Lawyer Faizullah Foyez, who represents three students of the university, filed the writ on Sunday. DU VC, head of the Bangla department of the university and other concerned have been made respondents in the writ petition