

31 Thai sailors missing after vessel sinks: Navy

December 19, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: At least 31 Thai Navy sailors were missing on Monday after their vessel sank off the southeastern coast of Thailand, a naval spokesperson said. “We are still looking for 31 missing,” said navy spokesperson Admiral Pogkrong Montradpalin.

The vessel sank just after midnight due to strong tides off the Gulf of Thailand, roughly 20 nautical miles from Bangsaphan pier in southern Prachuab Kiri Khan.
