

14-year-old killed in AL factional clash in Lakshmipur

February 22, 2023

Online Desk: A teenager 14 yeras boy was killed and four others were injured in a clash between two groups over dispute land at Raipr upazila in Lakshmipur district on Wednesday morning. The incident took place at Char Kachia village under Dakshin Char Bangsi union in the upazila at around 11 am. Deceased Rasel, 14, was son of Monir Hossain Bhuttu, a resident of the village.

According to local sources, Rasel group and Nazrul group having argument over a dispute land for a long time. Regarding this the deceased's uncle, Babul locked into an altercation with Faruk, Rahul group's member on Wednesday morning. At one stage of the altercation they started fight. When Rasel went there, one Rakib stabbed him on his stomach, leaving him critically injured.

Family members rushed him to Lakshmipur Sadar Hospital where the on duty doctor declared him dead. Raipur Police Station officer-in-charge said being informed police went there and arrested five accused for involvement in this killing.