

Iran will not accept imposed war or peace, nor will it surrender : Khamenei

June 18, 2025

Online Desk : Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei has said that Iran will take a firm stance against any war imposed on it. The country will also remain resolute against any peace forced upon it. He further stated, "This nation will not surrender to anyone under pressure." Khamenei made these remarks during a televised address on Wednesday. The news was reported by Iran's Tasnim News Agency and cited by Al Jazeera. Referring to U.S. President Donald Trump, Khamenei said, "Those who know Iran and its history know that Iranians do not respond well to the language of threats.

And the Americans should understand that any U.S. military intervention will undoubtedly bring about uncontrollable consequences." Issuing a direct warning to Trump, he added, "If the United States takes part in Israeli attacks, the damage will be irreparable."
