

Nora Fatehi sets World Cup stage ablaze with ‘Light the Sky’

December 19, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Yesterday, Bollywood diva Nora Fatehi set the stage on fire with her electrifying dance moves, at the closing ceremony of the 2022 World Cup in Qatar. The “Saki Saki” dancer performed alongside singers Balqees, Rahma Riad and Manal on their song, “Light the Sky”, just ahead of the exhilarating match. Nora chose a frilled, black dress for the occasion. To enhance the all-black look, she added black stockings and heels to the outfit. Videos and photos of her performance have already gone viral on social media.

Earlier on, Nora had penned an emotional note on Instagram, discussing her whole journey. “That moment when you hear your voice at the FIFA World Cup stadium! It was so surreal! It’s milestones like this that make the journey worth it. I always envisioned moments like these, I am just a Dreamer with a hunger to make those dreams come alive! From a regular girl in the hood to this,” read the post.
