Online Desk : Chief Adviser Prof Muhammad Yunus has inquired about the health condition of Bangladesh Jamaat-e-Islami Ameer Dr Shafiqur Rahman who was admitted to Dhanmondi Ibn Sina after fell sick at Suhrawardy Udyan rally. After visiting the hospital, the Chief Adviser's press secretary said, "Chief Adviser has inquired about the health condition of Jamaat Ameer. As national elections ahead, we want political leaders of all parties to be healthy and well. Let everyone contribute to building the country." Meanwhile, Jamaat Ameer wrote on a Facebook status on Sunday, "The Chief Adviser has inquired my health condition after fell sick on stage while giving speech at 'national rally' held at Suhrawardy Udyan on Saturday. I express my sincere gratitude and thanks."

"May Almighty Allah grant him the best reward. Ameen," he added.
