

761 cases filed against police in 11-month : TIB

August 4, 2025

Online Desk : Action has been taken against the members of different forces involved in the July uprising killings. A total of 1,168 police members have been accused in 761 cases across the country in the 11 months since the fall of the government, informed Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) on Monday.