

Primary scholarship exam results suspended

March 1, 2023

Online Desk: The results of the Primary Scholarship Examinations have been suspended as some mistakes were found in the published results due to technical errors. “Due to technical errors, the results of primary school scholarship exams-2022 need to be reviewed, so the results have been postponed,” said a notification signed by Primary Education Directorate’s General Director Shah Rezwan Hayat on Tuesday night.

Revised results will be published on today Wednesday afternoon, said the notification. The results will be available on the websites—www.dpe.gov.bd and www.mopme.gov.bd.

Earlier on Tuesday noon, State Minister for Primary and Mass Education Md Zakir Hossain announced the results at a press conference in the Secretariat, saying that 82,383 students got scholarships in two categories — talent pool and general — on the basis of their results in the exams held in December last year. A total of 4,83,759 examinees appeared in the scholarship examinations.
