

Most illegal weapons to be recovered before election : Home Advisor

October 28, 2025

Online Desk : Home Affairs Advisor Lieutenant General (Retd.) Jahangir Alam Chowdhury has expressed confidence that most illegal weapons will be recovered before the upcoming national election. “Weapons are being recovered regularly, and the process will continue until the election,” he told reporters after inaugurating the Ansar and Village Defence Party (VDP)’s transport service on Tuesday morning.

The advisor said Ansar personnel will have the largest deployment during the polls, with 13 members assigned to each voting center. For the first time, an Ansar member will also be deployed specifically for the security of the presiding officer, he added. Chowdhury expressed hope that the Ansar battalion would play a crucial role in ensuring a smooth and peaceful election.
