

Dhaka college, Ideal college students clash, traffic disrupted in city

March 2, 2023

Online Desk: The traffic movement disrupted in Dhanmondi area of the capital as a clash broke out between the students of two colleges around 1.30pm on Thursday. The chase and counter-chase in Green road area between the Dhaka College and Dhanmondi Ideal College groups is going on till filing the report.

It caused severe traffic congestion in and around the Dhanmondi area, causing suffering to the commuters. Sources said students of Ideal College allegedly vandalized a college bus of Dhaka College, triggering the clash. But reason behind the incident could not be known immediately. One student was injured so far during the incident. Law-enforcers from New Market, Kalabagan, Dhanmondi police stations were deployed in the area to tackle the situation.