

Tarique Rahman leaves for Evercare

December 25, 2025

Online Desk : BNP acting chairman Tarique Rahman has left for Evercare hospital after addressing the countrymen at a reception organized in the Purbachal 300 feet area of the capital. He left the reception venue at around 4:18 pm on Thursday and left for Evercare hospital in Bashundhara. He will meet his mother Khaleda Zia, who is undergoing treatment there. Earlier, at 11:40 am Thursday, the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner flight no. BG-202 of Biman Bangladesh Airlines carrying him landed at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport. Later, after brief formalities there, he reached the reception venue at around 3:50 pm.

Tarique first thanked almighty Allah after joining the program. He said, “First of all, I thank the Almighty Allah. I have returned to my motherland by the mercy of the Almighty Allah.” Tarique said, “Together, we will build a Bangladesh that a mother sees. That is, we want to build a safe Bangladesh. In Bangladesh, a person can leave their home safely and return there.” He also said, “Just as the people of the country achieved independence in 1971, in 2024, people from all walks of life, all together, defended the independence and sovereignty of this country. Today, the people of Bangladesh want to regain their right to speak. They want to regain their right to democracy.”
