

PM visits opposition MP after he falls sick during JS session

April 29, 2026

Online Desk : Prime Minister Tarique Rahman on Wednesday enquired about the health condition of an opposition lawmaker who fell sick during the parliamentary session. Opposition MP Hafez Robiul Bashar, elected from Satkhira-3 constituency, suddenly fell sick at around 1:40 pm during the first sitting of the 13th Jatiya Sangsad.

He was later taken to the parliament lobby with the help of fellow MPs and officials of the Jatiya Sangsad Secretariat where on-duty physicians provided him with primary treatment.

During the Zuhr prayers break of the session, the Prime Minister went to the lobby, enquired about the condition of the ailing MP and gave necessary instructions to the authorities concerned regarding his treatment. The Chief Whip of the Jatiya Sangsad and other whips were present at the time.
