

SRK teaches iconic 'signature pose' to Wayne Rooney at FIFA World Cup Final

December 20, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Shah Rukh who was promoting his upcoming film 'Pathaan' at the FIFA World Cup final taught 'The Wonder Boy' of football Wayne Rooney his iconic signature pose ahead of the match. Ahead of the Argentina and France match, SRK along with former England Footballer Wayne Rooney were present for a live interaction, where the actor promoted his upcoming film 'Pathaan' and ended up teaching his iconic pose. In the pictures, the duo was seen doing the signature open-arms SRK pose. One of the Twitter users shared the video. In his 'Dil To Pagal Hai,' SRK danced in the rain to Chak Dhoom Dhoom in his arms open pose. Songtracks of 'Kabhi Khushi Kabhie Gham' and 'Main Hoon Naa', 'Kabhi Alvida Naa Kehna' also feature the superstar incorporating his trademark pose.

On Saturday, SRK conducted the #AskSRK session, during which a fan asked him about whom he is supporting FIFA World Cup. One of the users, wrote, "Who are you supporting in World Cup final tomorrow #AskSRK," to which 'Pathaan' actor replied, "Arre yaar the heart says Messi no?? But Mbappa is a treat to watch also." Meanwhile, Argentina came out all guns blazing as captain Lionel Messi and Angel Di Maria's strikes gave Argentina a 2-0 lead in the first half against France in the ongoing FIFA World Cup at the Lusail Stadium in Qatar. Argentina led France 2-0 at halftime after Messi netted his sixth goal of the tournament and Angel Di Maria doubled the advantage from a thrilling counter-attack. Coming back to SRK, his charismatic personality radiates in the massive fan following. The superstar has given the audience memorable films like 'Baazigar', 'Kabhi Haan Kabhi Na', 'Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge', 'Kuch Kuch Hota Hai', 'Kal Ho Naa Ho', 'Veer Zara', and many more.

SRK is busy promoting director Siddharth Anand's next action thriller film 'Pathaan' alongside Deepika Padukone and John Abraham. Shah Rukh portrays a gun-toting spy with a license to kill in the action-thriller film.

The film is all set to hit the theatres on 25 January, 2023. Makers of 'Pathaan' unveiled the first song 'Besharam Rang' on Monday which got massive responses from the audience. While several liked the peppy track, there're also who found 'Besharam Rang' objectionable over the use of saffron and green costumes. Apart from this, Shah Rukh Khan will be also seen in south director Atlee's upcoming action thriller film 'Jawan' and director Rajkumar Hirani's next film 'Dunki' opposite Taapsee Pannu.
