

Russian strikes kill at least 5 in Ukraine

March 9, 2023

Online Desk: Ukrainian officials said Thursday that massive overnight strikes by Russia had killed at least five people in both western and eastern regions. The governor of Ukraine's western Lviv region said that four people were killed when a missile hit their house, while the governor of the eastern Dnipropetrovsk region said that a 34-year-old man had been killed.

“At this moment, it is known about four dead. These are four adults. Two men and two women,” Lviv regional governor Maksym Kozytzki wrote on Telegram messenger, saying a missile had hit their home in the Zolochiv district west of the city of Lviv. In the Dnipropetrovsk region, a “34-year-old man died as a result of the shelling. A 28-year-old woman and a 19-year-old boy were injured. They were hospitalised,” regional governor Sergiy Lysak wrote on Telegram.
