Around 10:45am, a section of students brought out a procession which paraded different roads of the campus. Their demands include: justice for the attack on RU students by locals and police, stopping the entry of outsiders in the university and ensuring safety of the students, ensuring on-campus accommodation for all students.

Amanullah Khan, a student of the RU, said, “Police personnel were found inactive during the clash incident. Taking advantage of their inaction, the locals attacked us. If our demands are not met, the movement will continue. The demonstrators called the students to join with them through loud speaker.
