

Classes, exams suspended at RU, case filed accusing around 300 persons

March 13, 2023

Online Desk: Classes and examinations at Rajshahi University (RU) remained suspended on Monday as per the authorities decision following Saturday's clash near the campus. Motihar Police Station SI Amant Ullah on Sunday night filed a case accusing some 250-300 persons over the clash between locals and the students in Binodpur Gate area of Rajshahi city on Saturday.

Police filed the case bringing allegation of arson attack on police box, torched motorcycles and obstructed police to perform their duties. Today, the students are also staging demonstration from the morning like Sunday.

Meanwhile, the university administration has formed three-member probe committee to investigate the incident. RU deputy vice-chancellor Prof Humayun Kabir was the chief of the probe body.
