

Entry of outsiders into IU campus restricted following attack

March 14, 2023

Online Desk: Authorities of Islamic University (IU) in Kushtia have restricted the entry of outsiders into the campus. They announce this through loud speaker inside the campus on Tuesday.

The entry of outsiders to the campus has been strictly prohibited from Tuesday till further notice for the sake of the university's security, said Proctor Prof Dr Shahadat Hossain Azad. Meanwhile, a case was filed by the university administration at Shailkupa Police Station over the attack on two students of IU on Monday.

Proctor Shahadat said, "The administration filed the case over Monday's incident. The university also restricted the entry of outsiders into the campus for the sake of security."
