

Pakistan court bars police operation to arrest Imran Khan until Friday

March 16, 2023

Online Desk: A Pakistan high court on Thursday barred police operation for another day to arrest former Prime Minister Imran Khan, his aide said.

The court had on Wednesday intervened to tamp down clashes between Khan's supporters and police after both sides suffered scores of injuries in pitched battles outside his Lahore house.

Khan's aide Fawad Chaudhry said the court has extended the bar on police operation until Friday. Reuters couldn't verify the court order independently.